FEAR!

Has a Firm Hold on Chicago.

Its Full Police Force Grappling With Murderers Who Riot and Pillage To-day.

The Killed and Wounded Mingled With a Pen Picture of the Bloody Strife.

CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The anarchists of Chicago inaugurated last night the reign of lawlessness which they have threatened and endeavored to incite for years. They threw a bomb in the midst of a line of 200 police officers and it exploded with a fearful effect, moving men down like cattle. Almost before the missile of death had exploded, the anarchists directed a murderous fire from revolvers upon the police, as if their action was prearranged, and as the latter were hemmed in on every side by an ambuscade, the effects of the fire on the ranks of the officers was fearful. When the police had recovered from the first shock of the attack they gallantly charged upon their would be murderers, shooting at every step and mowing them down, as their fellow-officers had been by the bomb. The anarchists fled in dismay before the charge, but everywhere they turned the withering fire from the revolvers of the policemen followed them and thinned their ranks. The cowardly curs, finding their attack did not completely annihilate the officers and that a force large enough to cope with them was left, fled in all directions, seeking the darkness of alleys, hallways and side streets to escape the revengeful fire of the police. The collision between the police and the anarchists was brought about by the leaders of the latter, August Spies, Sam Fielding and A. R. Parsons, endeavoring to incite a large mass meeting to riot and bloodshed.

This morning there were at the county hospital twenty-seven wounded officers and three citizens. The wives and daughters of the sufferers were beginning to arrive and their grief added to the solemnity of the scene. It is thought several more of the officers will die before the day is out. In probing the wounds the physicians found large pieces of zinc. One small, thin piece of zinc made a hole in a man's leg as large as a grape shot.

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Killed—Officers John Barrett, Joseph M. Deegan, Tom Reddin.

Reported dying—Mike Sheahan, Lawrence Murphy.

Wounded—Alexander Jameson, Pat Hartford, Lient. James Stanton, Adam Barber, Thos. McHenry, Henry Wencke, S. McMahon, D. F. Schnell, T. Sullivan, James Lee, Joseph Norman, James Conway, George Miller, John Reid, Michael O'Brien, Arthur Conley, Hanson, Thomas Brophy, Dan Hogan, N. J. Redken, Peter Butler, John King, Luke Collier, Charles Fink, Henry Smith, Louis Johnson, Sam Helgo, Alex Halverson, Officer Buttery, Officer Tim Flahin, H. F. Krueger, Officer John K. McMahon, Officer John Doyle, Officer Horn, Ed Barrett, Frank Johnson, Michael Hohn, Thomas Nolan, Freeman Steele, Chas. W. Stiney, James H. Wilson, M. J. Mitchell, N. J. Shannon, James Conway, Tim Murphy, Henry Meneky, Pat Enery, Ben Snell, Frank Trel, Joseph T. Johnson and J. J. Barrett.

Among the rioters wounded were John Schmidt, Tim Burke, Michael Howard, John Hurd, Peter Ivey, Frank Moritz, a young man named Lunt, Thos. Brady and Mike Lynch.

Spies, Fielding and Parsons were arrested.

THE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE.

The entire police force is on duty today. The police are encouraged by the entire press list commending and praising them for their discretion, bravery and excellent discipline in the face of unusual assaults by the criminal element.

MAYOR HARRISON TAKES.

Mayor Harrison re-asserts his ability to preserve absolute peace in Chicago without outside aid.

3,000 MEN STRIKE AT PULLMAN.

Three thousand men at the car shops at Pullman went out this morning.

STRIKE AT THE DEERING WORKS.

Another great strike was inaugurated

this morning. Seventeen hundred men employed in the Deering Harvester works stopped work without notice or warning of any character or without having made any demands. The managers of the works have asked for police protection.

LAKE SHORE STRIKE.

There is also a strike of all freight handlers on the Lake Shore road and the switchmen on the same road have also decided not to handle any freight cars loaded by any persons other than strikers.

MOR VIOLENCE.

Mob violence again asserted itself in the northwestern part of the city this morning, at Eighteenth street and Center avenue. Three thousand persons gathered and threatened the drug store of Samuel Rosenfeldt because he had a telephone in the store. A wagon load of police took Rosenfeldt and his family to the station, leaving a guard in the vicinity.

Chicago, 3 p. m.—The anarchist, Parsons, has not been captured, as first reported. He is still hiding. Schwab was mistaken for him when the first arrests were made. Inspector Bonfield raided Sept's hall, where he found a lot of muskets, red flags and German books expounding socialistic doctrines. Nearly $10,000 has already been subscribed on 'Change for families of wounded and dead officers.

3:10 p. m.—The police made another raid on the office of the Arbeiter Zeitung, and arrested a man in the office, who upon being searched, produced a large revolver and dirk knife. In the office was discovered several boxes of dynamite and a number of red flags and incendiary banners.

ANOTHER RIOT.

3:15 p. m.—A mob of from six to eight thousand persons reassembled near the corner of Eighteenth street and Centre avenue at noon and raided the drug store before mentioned, carrying off everything possible in the store. They then raided a liquor store. The women and children joined in this raid. The police returned and succeeded in dispersing the mob.

SOCIALIST SCHWAB.

It is learned that Schwab, one of the men now under arrest, addressed the strikers last night, urging them to this course. The striking freight handlers adopted resolutions condemning anarchists and tendering their services if need be to preserve public peace.

A BLOODY RIOT

Inaugurated at Haymarket, Chicago, Last Night.

CHICAGO, May 5.—The Socialists held a meeting at the old Haymarket, on Randolph street, last night. Big factories and low saloons abound there, and the population consists of Germans and Poles. There were 1,500 men assembled. During the progress of an inflammatory speech by one of the socialists, a squad of officers marched by close to the speakers stand. Some one shouted, "kill the d—d." Almost as soon as the words had been uttered, three bombs were thrown from near the stand into the midst of the squad of officers. They exploded instantly and five policemen fell. Others were wounded, and several of the socialists did not escape.

The explosion of the bombs, which was terrible, was instantly followed by a fusillade of revolver shots. More coherent accounts are coming in and they point to a much more disastrous outcome than at first reported. About 200 officers had been detailed to attend the meeting and had been in the vicinity, since the socialists had begun to assemble. At the time of the throwing of the bombs, the crowd had dwindled down to less than 1,000.

The utterances of the speakers were of the most inflammatory character and the crowd that remained grew riotous in their demands. The police concluded to put an end to the disturbance and advancing ordered the crowd to disperse. At first the socialists fled back slowly, one of the speakers urging them to stand firm. Suddenly the bombs were thrown. The police retorted and were well provided with weapons. The mob appeared crazed with a fanatical desire for blood, and holding its ground poured volley after volley into the midst of the officers. The latter fought gallantly and at last dispersed them and cleared the market place. Immediately after the first explosion, the officers who were left standing drew their revolvers and fired round after round into the mob. Large numbers of these fell, and as they dropped were immediately carried to the rear and into many dark alleyways by their friends.

Before the firing had ceased, the neighboring police stations were turned into temporary hospitals. At 11 o'clock twenty policemen lay on the floor of the Desplaine street station, all disabled, and probably half that number seriously so. Others were reported to be still lying in the open square, either dead or badly wounded.

The following is the list of the killed and wounded among the police: Joseph Stanton, John A. Dyer, John McMahon, Miles Murphy, F. Steele, John Reed, Arthur Connelly, F. Sullivan, Charles Whitney, Thomas Reddin, George Mills, H. Kruger, J. H. Wilson, Joseph Norman, H. Hallverson, F. Hald, Edward Barrett, John Henson, J. Mitchell, A. Flavin, Charles Pink, W. J. Shannon.

Inspector Bonfield has just been seen at Desplaine's street station, and says concerning last night's trouble: "After Parsons had concluded his speech, Sam Fielding, another notorious socialist, mounted the wagon and began to speak. His address was of the most inflammatory description. He called on the men to arm themselves and to assert their rights. He finally became so violent that word was sent to the station, which was only a block distant, and Inspector Bonfield, at the head of one hundred and twenty-five men, marched to the place where the meeting was in progress. Inspector Bonfield called upon the crowd to disperse, and Fielding shouted out to them from the wagon, 'to arms.' The officer once more called on them to disperse, when, suddenly from behind the wagon, which was not fifteen feet from the front rank of the police, two bombs were thrown in between the second and third ranks of the men, with the effects as already stated."

On the table in the station house where the wounded policemen are, one poor fellow lies stretched on a table with terrible bullet wounds in his breast. A few feet distant a man with tattered clothes and a mortal wound in his side is lying insensible on a cot. Around the room in chairs, with their legs bandaged up and resting on supports of different kinds, are some fifteen or twenty of the officers, who were wounded by the bombs. Not a groan or complaint is heard from any of them. Another officer, who was found lying in the doorway where he had been carried, or where he had dragged himself, has just been brought in faintly wounded. There are some twenty of the socialists in the basement. Nearly all of them are wounded and one of them, a young fellow of about twenty, is dead.

The following named socialists, all of whom are wounded, have been placed under arrest: "Joe Kucher, Emil Lotz, John Wellend, Peter Day, John Frazer, August Jaka, John Lachmann, Explant and Chas. Schumacker.

LEFT ALONE.

The Ohio State Senators Fly from Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 5.—The democratic members of the senate were absent this morning with the exception of Vanciliff, which makes eighteen members with all republicans and one less than a quorum. When the senate was called to order on motion of Pring, republican, a recess was taken to 11 a. m. At 11 a. m., only seventeen republican members were present. The speaker called up for special order the report of the committee on the senatorial contest in Hamilton county and gave the clerk a communication on the subject. It was read and ordered filed. A call of the senate followed and the sergeant at arms was sent after the absent members. Nearly all the democrats left the city and the sergeant is still searching for them.

At 2:30 p. m., the senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, none of the democratic members having been found.

RAILROADS.

The Lake Shore and Nickel Plate Elections.

CLEVELAND, O., May 5.—The annual meeting of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern stockholders was held here today. The following directors were elected for three years: John Newell, E. D. Worcester, John E. Burrill and F. W. Vanderbilt. John DeKoven, of Chicago, was elected in place of W. H. Vanderbilt, deceased. There being no quorum present, the officers will not be elected until the next meeting.

The stockholders of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis road also elected as directors, for three years, C. Vanderbilt, W. K. Vanderbilt, F. W. Vanderbilt, H. McK. Twimly and C. M. DePew.

The Cleveland and Marietta railroad was sold to-day under foreclosure to Hugh L. Cole, New York, representing the bondholders, for $400,000.

NEW YORK, May 5.—J. W. Jewett resigned the presidency of the Chicago and Atlantic railway, on account of his removal from the city. James H. Benedict was elected to succeed Jewett and Thomas C. Musgrove was elected vice-president.

THE Washington Post says: "The lady clerks in the Postoffice Department and some of the gentlemen clerks, too, make a great pet of little Miss Mollie Vilas, the daughter of the Postmaster General, who visits the department every Saturday, spends the day under the protecting wings of the lady clerks, and goes home with her father in the afternoon. She is a pretty little girl, with red cheeks and bright, sparkling eyes, and a tendency to say sharp things. Last Saturday about 12 o'clock, when she wanted some luncheon, she was going to her father, when one of the ladies remarked that it would be useless, as she had just seen him captured by a Senator. 'Senators are a bother, I must confess,' exclaimed Miss Mollie, petulantly; and it can hardly be questioned that she expressed the sentiments that her father frequently entertains."

BLOOD!

Spilled at Bay View To-day.

Five Rioters are Shot Down and a Number of People Mortally Wounded.

Best's Brewery is Attacked and the Socialists are Pursued Everywhere by the Militia.

BAY VIEW.

RIOT AND BLOODSHED THERE.

MILWAUKEE, May 5.—Reports from Bay View say the militia fired on the mob this morning. Two rioters are known to be killed. The mob is marching toward the Allis works, which started under military protection this morning. The light horse squadron is on the way to the works. A large gathering of socialists is reported at Milwaukee garden. An eye witness reports that two men were killed outright, two mortally wounded and a number slightly hurt. The collision occurred at Deer Creek bridge.

BEGINNING TO FIGHT.

The crowd of rioters at Bay View commenced to form at 8:30 and moved towards the mills. Six military companies were marched out of the grounds and stationed in front of the works and as the crowd approached, paying no attention to orders to halt, the dread word "fire" was given and a volley of bullets was poured into the crowd. The rioters beat a hasty retreat, when it was learned that and several wounded. One killed was a school boy, who had his school books under his arm when he fell.

KILLED AT BAY VIEW.

The rumor that two men were killed at the Best brewery was found to be untrue. Several shops were fired but no persons were injured. The list of killed and wounded at Bay View are: Frank Kunkrel, yard foreman of the rolling mill, instantly killed.

Michail Ruhalski, laborer, died in a few minutes.

Martin Jankoyer, fatally wounded.

A boy fourteen years old, named Noweteh, dangerously wounded in the abdomen.

Casimer Dudke, condition serious.

Albert Urtmann, dangerously wounded.

Two or three others, whose names are not reported, were wounded, but not seriously.

While trouble was going on at Bay View, a large crowd of socialists and strikers assembled at Milwaukee garden on the west side, and were preparing to carry out a program of

RIOT AND DESTRUCTION.

A platoon of sixty policemen and three infantry companies were dispatched there and cleared the premises. The mob then reassembled and proceeded to Best's brewery and word is just received that a disturbance took place there, in which it became necessary to resort to firing and that

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED.

The rioters, or those of the Polish nationality at least, returned to the city and proceeded to sack the residence of Captain Borchardt, of the Kosciuszko guards, yesterday's firing having been done by that company. The residence is a complete wreck. The Poles then assembled near the Polish church and it is rumored decided to arm themselves and make a raid on the militia at Bay View mills this afternoon.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., May 5.—The strikers in the western part of the city have by force of numbers overawed several hundred more men so that they too are now out.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—There are heavy accessions to strikers to-day, from the safe and lock manufacturers. About 1,200 employes have gone out, demanding eight hours work and full pay. They have quietly paraded the streets.

The striking furniture men have adopted emphatic resolutions against the murderous work of socialists in Chicago.

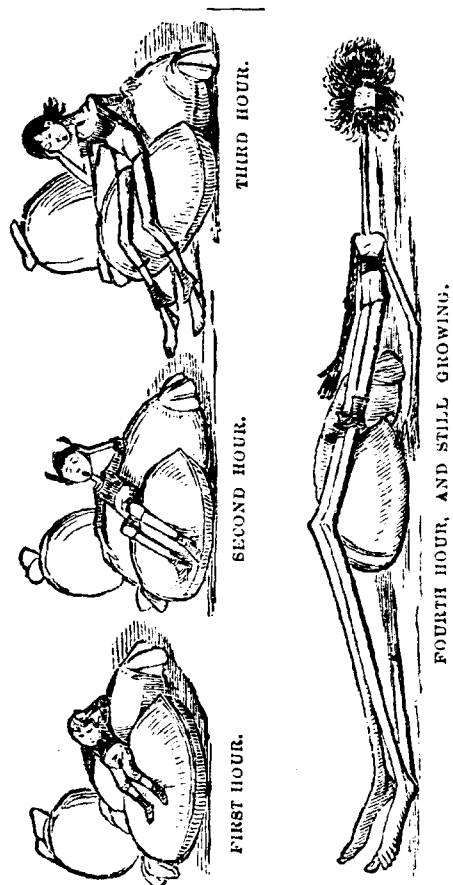

The police are protecting the men at work at the Little Miami freight house and have arrested three men who attempted to break through the lines. Work on the streets is stopped although the mayor has said he would afford protection to any who wished to work.

He Got a Change

One of those chronic sharpers who habitually infest omnibuses dropped into one the other day and proceeded to develop his little game. He was by no means unknown to the guard, who immediately collected his fare in the shape of a three-penny piece, and for a few moments nothing was said. When the fraud broke the silence with: "Am I going to have any change for that half-crown I gave you?" "You didn't give me half-crown," replied the guard, scowling darkly. "Yes, but I did, though, and if you don't pass me over the two and threepence I'll report you." "But you only gave me a threepenny piece." "I say I gave you half-a-crown, and I want some change," and the man stood up, glaring defiantly. The passengers became interested and the guard came inside. "You are riding along all right enough now, ain't you?" inquired the latter. "Yes, I s'pose I am." "Well," said the guard, suddenly getting behind the man and shooting him off the bus. "now you ain't you see. Ain't that change enough for you?"—Melbourne Leader.

Feather-Weight Diet.

Mose Schaumburg and Ike Levison are rivals in trade, but personally they are very friendly. Being in a good humor Mose said to Levison: "Come home mit me and have dinners." "I was much obliged, put I has choost had some dinners, Mose." "Jah dot so?" "Ya, I has choost dined." "I don't believe dot?" "I have choost dined—upon my vord of honor." "Vell, den, come along and eat some more. Ven you has choost dined upon your vord of honor, you must be hungry, ash dot wash very light diet."—Texas Sittings.

A BUCOLIC PHILOSOPHER.

Gravity is not of necessity an indication of learning; it quite as often expresses a poverty of ideas, or the presence of dyspepsia, as any thing else. An old farmer who had great respect for a jovial lawyer's attainments was greatly disgusted that his opponent, a rather boorish man, was elected district attorney. Sitting one day in the court-room, the aged agriculturist muttered in a voice like distant thunder: "There sets Mayne, riz by his gravity! an' there sets Keller, sunk by his levity! I wonder w'at Sir Isaac Newton'd thought o' that!"—Youth's Companion.

"I wish you wouldn't grin at me in that idiotic way, Mr. Lightwaist, you make me nervous." "Can't help it—my 'Hand-Book of Etiquette' says that you must wear a pleasant smile during the pauses in conversation, and I'm wearing one, that's all."—Puck.

Keeping Up with Style.

A Harvard student who got into a quarrel on a young lady's account, and came out considerably the worse for it, was complaining to her of the rough usage he had received for her sake. "Oh, well," said she, "it ought to console you to know you are more than ever in the fashion." "How do you mean?" "Why beaten brass, you know, is all the rage."—Harvard Lampoon.

Quiet Reigns at Chicago at 3:30.

An Inquest on the Dead Officer Deegan and His Slayars Will be Indicted.

Forty-Four Wounded Officers and Men Lie at the County Hospital—Others Will Die.

Quiet at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 5.—3:30 p. m.—The city remains quiet. The railway companies have sustained no molestation of any kind and, with the exception of the Lake Shore, are moving about all freight offered.

Forty-four wounded officers and men are at the county hospital. Officer Deegan is the only one dead among the wounded officers.

THE INQUEST.

CHICAGO, May 5.—An inquest upon the body of Officer John Deegan, who died last night, began this afternoon. It is thought the evidence will result in the indictment of Spies and other anarchists for murder.

PRINTERS ARRAIGNED FOR MURDER.

The twenty-five printers arrested in the Arbeiter-Zeitung building were arraigned before Justice Meerch, charged with murder. The cases were continued until May 14.

OTHERS WILL DIE.

At 2 o'clock Officer Barrett was reported dying and there appears to be little hope of saving the lives of Officer John Miller, Jacob Hansen, Nelson Hansen and Thomas Redden.

QUIET AT BAY VIEW.

MILWAUKEE, May 5.—2 p. m.—No fresh outbreak has been reported from Bay View.

The Rothschild family is rich beyond knowledge. The family wealth, united, amounts into the thousands of millions of dollars, and it holds the financial credit of nations in its hands. In the last twelve years its members have loaned $450,000,000 to certain European governments, and when, in 1886, the Prussian government demanded an indemnity of $25,000,000 from the city of Frankfurt-on-the-Main—where the Rothschilds do a great deal of business—the house notified Bismarck that if the levy was forced every bank in Frankfurt would be broken. Bismarck did not collect.

CHANG, the Chinese giant, has become a citizen of the United States in Kansas City, which he intends to make his home. He will make one more visit to China, and then return for good. His idea is to open a Chinese store. His relatives are engaged in the tea business in China, and he intends to import to Kansas City direct. He admitted to a reporter that he had matrimonial designs, and that at no distant day he would take out a license, but did not wish to disclose the name of the happy Kansas City belle.

A FAIR TRIAL IN TERRE HAUTE.

The nineteenth century is said to be the age of skepticism, and so perhaps it is as regards religion, but its practical spirit inclines it to look favorably on everything that promises immediate benefit and it is always ready to give everything that seems useful a fair trial. The West especially has been open and cordial to all new ideas, and this may partly explain why Athlophoros, the sovereign remedy for rheumatism and neuralgia, has secured such a strong footing in Terre Haute. A well-known citizen who has the most implicit faith in it is Mr. R. Forster, the furniture dealer at No. 320 Main street. Mr. Forster, when recently asked at his warehouse as to the benefit he had derived from Athlophoros, answered as follows:

"Yes, I have used Athlophoros with the very best satisfaction. I have had neuralgia for many years, and could not find any medicine that would give me relief until I commenced using Athlophoros, and I can tell you I had used about everything."

"How did you first get confidence enough in Athlophoros to try it?"

"Well, it was just in this way. I was suffering very much at the time from my neuralgia. One Saturday evening Mr. Mallette, a manufacturer of wire mattresses, who is in business in Chicago, and lives at Elgin, Ill., came down to spend Sunday with me. Finding me suffering as I was he said:

"Get some Athlophoros. It is good, my wife used it and was cured of her neuralgia by it."

"Without waiting for me to say much about it he went out and bought a bottle of the medicine. I took some that night and the next day I was as free from pain as if I had never had neuralgia. I spent several hours in a walk that Sunday with Mr. Mallette, which day before would have been misery for me. During the summer months I am never troubled with neuralgia, but if I should be again I would certainly use Athlophoros, for I am fully convinced of its merits."

"I have recommended Athlophoros to several persons and have yet to learn of an instance where it did not accomplish its mission. Among others I recommended it to Mrs. Richards, who lives in Casey, Ill. I saw her in the city a few days ago and asked her if she had used it. She said that she had taken two bottles. It was helping her, and she said that she was going to get some more."

Mrs. C. A. Armstrong, of No. 123 South Second street, is another resident of Terre Haute, Ind., whom Athlophoros has cured. "I used it for neuralgia," she says, "and it cured me. I had been troubled for about three years with what seemed at times neuralgia, and then again rheumatism. I was never free from pain. The very first dose of Athlophoros I took gave me relief, and after using only two bottles my soreness is all gone and I am feeling much stronger. My daughter was also cured of neuralgia by it."

"Yes, I can say Athlophoros did everything for me," is the daughter's statement. "I was so sick with neuralgia that I could not sit up and suffered the greatest pain. Mother sent me a half bottle of Athlophoros, the first few doses of which gave me relief. All I used was the half bottle and I have not had any neuralgia since."

If you cannot get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—$1.00 per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed. ATHLOPHOROS CO., 112 Wall Street, New York.

There Are a Few Druggists who care more to make a large profit on a wretched article than to wait for the prosperity that ultimately results from honest dealing. These are the men who when asked for a Beeson's Capelin Plaster, will recommend some cheap and trashy substitute or imitation, saying it is "just as good." Sometimes they will do up and sell the miserable imitation without remark, allowing the customer to suppose that Beeson's is the valueless plaster returned. Cheap John will say he made a mistake—if not, he has done a good stroke of business. The public are cautioned against John and all his ilk. Buy of respectable druggists only. FRANK BOLING, of Cherokee, Kansas throw himself on a feather bed that lay on the floor during a thunder-storm. He neglected to draw up his legs, and his feet were touching the floor, when the lightning struck the house and played about his feet, burning them and knocking him senseless. That part of his body which was on the bed was not hurt, and a child lying by his side was uninjured.

The poetical name of Galveston is the Oleander City, but, according to the Galveston News, the trees which gave the city that title have been destroyed by the extraordinary frosts of last winter. Says the News: "It is not exaggerating the case whatever in asserting that there will not be a solitary oleander in bloom this summer and perhaps for many summers to come."

The cholera epidemic has appeared in Europe, and will undoubtedly make an appearance in this country this season unless every precaution is taken to keep it down. Cleanliness of house and street is essential. With the virulence it had in Western Europe last season it is altogether likely that we shall not go free. It marches as it always has, steadily westward, partaking somewhat of force from curious and unknown conditions of the atmosphere.

RICHARD HENNESSY, the head of the famous brandy firm, died at his residence at Cognac, France, a few days ago, after a very brief illness. By his death the French turf has lost one of its best known and most popular owners of horses. Mr. Hennessy had a very checkered career, and he has never been the same man since his wife, who was his cousin before marriage and brought him a considerable fortune, eloped with a Paris rough-rider named Earle.

M. ALFRED ASSOLAUT once tried to lecture on his experiences in this country. He hired a small room and got together a few friends. "Ladies and gentlemen," he began, "when one thinks of setting out for America, the most natural thing to do is to consult the sailing list of the steamship lines. To get to America you must have a steamship; you must, I say, have a steamship; a good steamship." Then timidity and embarrassment overcame him. He gave up the attempt at lecturing, and never tried again.

A SUM equal to $800,000,000 is required to carry out the land programme of Gladstone to Ireland, which it is presumed Ireland could repay in about forty years. To carry out the same principle to England, Scotland, and Wales, where it would be required in order that the Irish scheme receive the consent of the English people, would require not less than $3,000,000,000, about what our debt was ten years ago. It seems colossal, but perhaps it would be cheaper than rent-paying, for the sum is based upon a thirty years' rental, that in the end still leaves the tenant a tenant.

MR. ONDERDONK, of Long Island, was a man who had a will of his own, although now the will seems in a fair way of being contested. To one son he left $30,000 on condition that he becomes a lawyer; that he does not marry till he is twenty-eight; that he uses no liquor or tobacco, and visits no race-course or gambling place. If any legatee ceases to work he forfeits the sum left him. As Mr. Onderdonk saved legal expenses by writing the will himself, he would probably not be surprised to know that it has technical flaws that will doubtless overthrow it. Lawyers love men who make their own wills.

EDUCATED AND EXPERIENCED. Hood's Sarsaparilla is prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., apothecaries, Lowell, Mass., who have a thorough knowledge of pharmacy, and a thorough practical experience in the business. It is prepared with the greatest skill and care, under the direction of the men who originated it. Hence Hood's Sarsaparilla may be depended upon as a thoroughly pure, honest and reliable medicine.

In an editorial on the late John Welsh, the Philadelphia Ledger tells the following anecdote of him: "On the eve of one of his tours of Europe and the Holy Land, he made a visit to the Episcopal Hospital, and, casually looking over the books, noted to himself the amount of the hospital's unliquidated debt. It was about $18,000, and two days afterward, when he was on the sea, the hospital received his check for the full amount. He was then out of reach of praise for his thoughtful care of the institution. Altogether he contributed there $41,000."

They had a fashionable wedding in Philadelphia the other day. They had tried three times before to have it, but each time the bride backed out. The last time something about her dress displeased her and she said she would not get married that day. The bridegroom got tired of this sort of thing and he asked the first bridesmaid, who was a very pretty girl, to officiate in the place of the reluctant bride. She consented, and just as the ceremony was over the bride who was-to-have-been drove up and found herself too late for the fair. The capricious young woman is hereby informed that there are 60,000 more women than men in Pennsylvania, so she ought to see now what she has missed.

"We have a terrible enemy to contend with. He strikes in the dark as he works in the dark. Arise in your might and crush him out. He should be classed as a criminal of the lowest and most dangerous order, but the sharpest and most unprincipled lawyers and lobbyists in the country will be employed to defend him, and conspire against us. We suffer a terrible wrong and we must organize to resist it." The foregoing eloquent and pathetic extracts are not the utterances of a Knight of Labor crushed by a heartless monopoly. It is not the speech of a victim of the "demon rum." It is not the cry of the slave from under the heel of the oppressor. The outburst is from none of these. Far worse. It is the appeal for help of the victim of oleomargarine, the outcry of the dairymen against the unprincipled manufacturer of imitation butter. Joseph H. Reall, President of the American Dairymen's Association, is the spokesman, and he calls upon all farmers to rally around honest butter and defeat their enemies.

An Old Field Weed.

The old field mullen has been a seemingly outcast for many years, but now it has suddenly attracted the attention of the medical world who now recognize it to be the best lung medicine yet discovered, when made into a tea and combined with sweet gum, presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullen a pleasant and effective cure for croup, whooping cough, colds and consumption. Sold by all druggists.

OUR BREAD IN DANGER.

The Alarming Increase in Baking Powder Adulterations.

Among recent important discoveries by the food analysts is that by Prof. MOTT, U. S. Government Chemist, of large amounts of lime and alum in the cheap baking powders. It is a startling fact that of over one hundred different brands of baking powder so far analyzed, comprising all those sold in this vicinity, not one, with the single exception of Royal Baking Powder, was found free from both lime and alum.

The use of alum is to produce a cheap baking powder. It costs less than two cents a pound, whereas pure cream of tartar costs forty. Its effect upon the system has been ascertained to be poisonous, and overdoses have been attended with fatal results. Lime is the most useless adulterant yet found in baking powders. It is true that when subjected to heat a certain amount of carbonic acid gas is given off, but a quicklime is left, a caustic so powerful that it is used by tanners to eat the hair from hides of animals, and in dissecting rooms to more quickly rot the flesh from the bones of dead subjects.

The effect of lime upon the delicate membranes of the stomach, intestines and kidneys, more particularly of infants and children, and especially when taken into the system day after day, and with almost every meal, is pernicious in the extreme, and is said by physicians to be one of the chief causes of indigestion, dyspepsia, and diseases of the kidneys. Chemists have found 12 per cent., or one-eighth of the weight, of some of the baking powders prominently sold in this vicinity, to be lime. The wickedness of this adulteration is apparent.

The absolute purity and wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder—now affirmed by every chemist and food analyst of prominence, and conceded by all manufacturers of other brands—arises from the exclusive use of cream of tartar specially refined by patent processes, which remove totally the lime and all other impurities. These facilities are possessed by no other manufacturer. The Chemist of the Department of Health of Brooklyn, N. Y., in which city the works of the Royal Baking Powder Company are situated, after recent numerous experiments, reports:

"I subjected several samples of the Royal Baking Powder, purchased from dealers in Brooklyn, to chemical analysis, and I take pleasure in stating that this powder has attained a most remarkable purity. I am unable to detect the slightest trace of lime tartrate in it, while all its constituents are pure and of the highest quality. The 'Royal' is a baking powder undoubtedly of the greatest leavening power, and perfectly wholesome.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 5, 1896.

THE CITY.

The police recorded no arrest last night.

Orrin Perry restored a lost child to its mamma yesterday.

Mrs. Vogel, mother of Mr. Frank B. Vogel is quite ill.

Supt. P. S. O'Rourke returned to-day from Grand Rapids.

Ernest V. Werkman and Elizabeth E. Geperst have been licensed to wed.

Charley Bookwalter has been doing local work on the Journal for a few days past.

Mayor Muhler's proclamation was observed as usual yesterday. All the saloons were open.

Hon. A. P. Edgerton left this morning for Hicksville, his country home, and will go to Washington Saturday.

Henry J. Meyer and bride leave Saturday for New York, from whence they will sail for Europe to be absent a year.

The Holsworth-Connors adultery case was sent to Squire Swantz, at New Haven. There are big costs in this case.

Mayor Muhler will reconstruct and announce the new council committees at the next session of the Barr street legislature.

The police and others are searching for Henry Krout, of 91 East Washington street, who has been missing since Monday night.

Ex-Councilman John Wessel and wife left this morning for New York City and Saturday they will sail for Germany to remain some time.

County Treasurer Dalman has his cash account balanced and finds his collections on current and delinquent taxes amount to $222,481.35.

Mr. R. T. McDonald went to Huntington this morning to look at the Jenny electric light that illuminates that village. It is a Fort Wayne plant.

Mr. Dennis Monahan's promotion to the council creates a vacancy on the board of city commissioners. Judge Edward O'Rourke fills the vacancy.

Marshal Meyer, this morning, ordered two suspicious characters from the city. He accompanied them to the depot, when the fellows swore vengeance, but Dick smiled on them.

Boltz & Derheimer will soon put their huge steam dredge at work on the Eel River ditch. It is the first scow used in the business in the county, and THE SENTINEL man is asked to go out and look at it.

Notice is given by the Wabash road that it will receive shipments of freights destined to points on the Indiana and Illinois Southern road, which connects with the Wabash road at Effingham, Ill.

G. W. Seavy was fined $11 this morning for maintaining an objectionable heap of earth in the rear of his place of business on Columbia street. The mayor assessed the fine and Mr. Seavy hesitated about paying it.

Manager O. L. Perry this morning posted up this notice: "Cable rates reduced after May 5: to Great Britain, France and Ireland, twelve cents a word; to Germany, fifteen cents a word." This is cheaper than a message to New York.

Hon. S. S. Shutt, Spencerville, Ind.; J. Blackford, Findlay, Ohio; L. G. Gililand, Van Wert; Herman Potlitzler and brother, Lafayette; W. M. Youngman, Indianapolis, and C. S. Knight, St. Louis, are among the guests at the Avenue house.

A Washington correspondent of the Indianapolis Sentinel says: "Judge Lowry says he has pledged for him over three-fourths of the Allen county delegation, and Noble county is substantially solid for him. His renomination is apparently a foregone conclusion."

The Fort Wayne Ideal Bicycle club held their first meeting last evening and the following officers were elected: Captain, J. White; lieutenant, E. Olds; president, C. Morganthaler; secretary and treasurer, B. Nirdlinger. The boys will have their first run Friday.

This morning Judge O'Rourke issued an order restraining Margaret Gard from visiting the office of her husband, Dr. B. Gard, who applied for a divorce yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. Gard were married at Oxford, Ohio, in 1856, and lived together until 1879, when he alleges Mrs. Gard abandoned him and previous to that time ceased to love him. He complained that she visited his office and annoyed himself and customers, hence the injunction this morning.

Joseph Proctor will appear in the great play, "Virginia," at the Temple opera house this evening. The Kansas City Star, edited by Col. Wm. R. Nelson, says: "Lovers of the legitimate drama, as portrayed by true artists, will have an opportunity of seeing Joseph Proctor and his company, in Knowle's great tragedy, 'Virginia.' Mr. Proctor needs no words of introduction. He stands in the foremost rank of tragedians and his 'Virginia' is spoken of as a master piece. He is supported by his daughter, Miss Annie Proctor, as Virginia, and a specially selected company."

Mr. Will D. Gordon, the express agent, has a letter from Mr. A. Stone, of East Liverpool, Ohio, whose carrier pigeon he liberated here a short time ago. Mr. Stone says: "The bird got home all right. He was sent more for a test than for time, as he had only flown from Alliance before, a distance of forty-nine miles, reckoning by the road, so that a jump from Fort Wayne here is a pretty good test. You must make allowance in his time (four or five days) for not being trained. He goes to Chicago this week for a fly. A brother of his flew from Chicago a few weeks ago and had never been on that road before or even in that direction, having only flown from about Wheeling, W. Va."

"Burr Oaks" at the Academy to-night.

The Wabash pay car was at Decatur, Ill., this morning.

The "Burr Oaks" company go from here to Columbus.

Engineer Tom Telly is again on his run on the Pittsburgh road.

A "Box of Cash" will be opened at the Academy to-morrow night.

In the superior court Henry H. Bossler sued Ed. Seidel on contract for $500. This claim arises from the offer to sell the Seidel block for $28,000 some time ago.

The Masonic Benevolent society is now making out proofs of the late Ben Wiley's death, and the insurance on his life will be paid to Mrs. Wiley in a few days.

Mr. D. Nestel is driving his valuable three year old Morgan colt both single and double to top carriage. The animal was very easy to break and promises to be valuable to its owner.

The funeral of Mrs. A. L. Johns will take place from her late residence, 287 West Washington street, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. D. W. Moffat will officiate.

Mrs. Jennie Fowler, wife of the well known farmer just west of town, died this morning of pneumonia, aged forty-six years. Her funeral occurs Sunday afternoon from Prairie Grove chapel.

The city election board met at the city hall this morning and made returns of the election yesterday. Hon. Henry Monning was chairman and W. W. Rockhill, secretary. The result is noted elsewhere.

The paternity case of Ella Green against Henry Heidenrich will come up before Justice France to-morrow. In the meantime Henry will put a roll of bills in Mary's hand and settle the case, to the disappointment of Bloomingdale society. This is Miss Green's fifth case of this character.

The Wabash people are indignant and demand a change in weighmasters, alleging that the present inspector of weights of the Indianapolis weighing association is prejudiced against their road, and overlooks far more flagrant wrongs in their competitors than are practiced by the much abused Wabash.

Anna Wehrs has been given a permit to erect a one-story frame house on lot 181 north side addition, at a cost of $1,000. Wm. Saunders will erect a two-story brick residence on lot 468 Hanna's addition at a cost of $6,000. John Bauman will build a one-story frame house on lot 19, Johnston's addition, at a cost of $500.

"Superintendent G. W. Stevens, of the Wabash, is evidently anxious to be regarded as eccentric. His latest move in that direction is the running of his private car in front of the engine instead of behind, as formerly. This may be all right on a clear track, but we would not envy him in case there should happen to be an obstruction on the track. Life is too sweet to risk unnecessarily," says the Lafayette Courier.

"We commenced selling Athlophoros about a year ago. We have had the best success with it of any rheumatic medicine we ever handled," writes druggist O. W. Halstead, of Mason, Michigan, and his experience is a common one.

Dr. J. H. Ranch is preparing for a trip to the northwest.

Last performance of "Burr Oaks" at the Academy to-night.

The board of directors of the gas wells at Eaton, met to-day. Hon. R. C. Bell is president.

The weather indications for Indiana are clearing, fair weather, nearly stationary temperature.

Mrs. Carrie A. Morgan, formerly of this city, is now located at 369 West Twenty-third street, New York City.

Matthews Birkhold, of the McKinnis house, and William Dedolph, bar tender for Christ Newcomer, will shortly open a saloon at 358 South Calhoun street.

At Monroeville, Monday, Wm. Waterman and J. B. Miller were elected trustees, and C. J. Brannon was elected treasurer, C. J. Myers, clerk, and John Vince, marshal.

The Municipal Election.

The election yesterday resulted in the selection of J. F. Wm. Meyer, democrat, as water works trustee. The vote for councilmen resulted:

First ward—John Kensil, republican; no opposition.

Second Ward—Dennis Monahan, democrat, 103 majority over John Carl, greenbacker.

Third ward—Dr. Henry A. Read, democrat; no opposition.

Fourth ward—George W. Ely, republican, defeated M. N. Webber eight votes owing to the interposition of Wm. Martin, who polled fifty-four votes.

Fifth ward—Herman Michaels, republican; no opposition.

Sixth ward—Levi Griffith, republican, beat Tom Ahern, democrat, twelve votes.

Seventh ward—Peter J. Scheid, democrat; no opposition.

Eighth ward—C. F. Buttenbender, republican, defeated Frank Gocke, democrat, 72 votes.

Ninth ward—Charles Haiber, republican, defeated J. R. Prentiss, democrat, 223 votes.

Counting Messrs. Racine, Kelker and Tresselt with the republicans, they have nine votes in the council. At the meeting next Tuesday evening, a chief of the fire department, a weighmaster, market master and poundmaster are to be chosen. A member of the public school board will be elected in June.

The County Debt.

The Daily People, an independent newspaper published in this city, contains the following article on the county debt:

Ever since the present board of commissioners decided to fund the county debt in bonds running in the aggregate eleven years, the debt question has been almost the sole topic of conversation in political circles. While many of the people are loud in their condemnation of the extravagance of the last board of commissioners and the present county officers, there are others who manfully defend them against any imputations of dishonesty or extravagance, claiming that the nucleus, if not the principal of the heavy load that now weighs down the taxpayers of the county, was accumulated during the years extending from 1874 to 1882. Determined to get at the exact facts one of the People has, during the past few days, carefully examined the books in the auditor's and treasurer's offices, and without the least desire to shield anyone submits his report as follows:

On the 15th day of October, 1874, when Henry J. Radisill turned over the books of the auditor's office to Mr. William T. Abbott, there were county orders afloat amounting to $76,210.13 and a bonded debt of $60,000.

October 31, 1875, when Mr. Abbott retired from the office the books showed that there were county orders afloat amounting to $39,863.56, while the cash account was overdrawn $1,596.81, making a total county debt of $41,460.37. In the meantime, however, the bonded indebtedness of $60,000 had been wiped out, leaving the net debt, October 31, 1875, at the time when Mr. Abbott retired, $41,460.37. This does not agree with the emphatic statements made by Mr. Abbott's friends that when he left the office there was not a single dollar owing to any man.

In November, 1882, when M. E. Argo finished his term and A. L. Griebel took charge, the books showed that there were county orders afloat amounting to $177,826.15, with but $1,926.73 in cash in the hands of the treasurer, leaving a net indebtedness of $175,900.41, or an increase during the four years of Argo's administration of $134,440.24.

It will be seen from the above statement that when the term of the present county officers commenced, the debt saddled on the taxpayers had reached the snug little sum of $175,900.41. Within the last three years, under a decision of Attorney General Hori, Auditor Griebel has been compelled to pay back to the school fund $7,920.03, unlawfully withheld from the same during the years extending from 1856 to 1863. In the same time gravel road bonds secured by lien on the property adjoining the road have matured, and the assessments not having been paid in, the sum of $9,501.86 has been paid out of the county treasury to redeem the same. In addition to this the cost of the Richards murder trial, amounting to $5,000 in round numbers, have been paid out of the treasury, and stand charged against the treasurer. The total of these three sums, $22,421.89, added to the amount of orders outstanding when the present officers assumed control, $175,900.41 brings the county debt up to $200,000 in round numbers, the amount of bonds recently issued. There are at present county orders afloat aggregating $1,069.49 with $15,460.99 in the treasury, leaving a net cash balance on hand in favor of the county of $14,381.50.

From the above statement it will be clearly seen that the heavy bonded debt of Allen county was incurred, not during the present regime. This will probably be unpleasant news to some people, but every figure in the above can be verified by reference to the books of either the auditor or the treasurer. The most surprising fact demonstrated is that instead of the county debt increasing during the past four years, it has been slowly but steadily cut down, and with the increased revenues resulting from the re-appraisal of all real estate in the county at present being made it is only a question of a few years when Hog Allen will have been rescued from the slough of despond in which it has been wallowed for some time.

FEAR!

Has a Firm Hold on Chicago.

Its Full Police Force Grappling With Murderers Who Riot and Pillage To-day.

The Killed and Wounded Mingled With a Pen Picture of the Bloody Strife.

CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 5.—The anarchists of Chicago inaugurated last night the reign of lawlessness which they have threatened and endeavored to incite for years. They threw a bomb in the midst of a line of 200 police officers and it exploded with a fearful effect, mowing men down like cattle. Almost before the missile of death had exploded, the anarchists directed a murderous fire from revolvers upon the police, as if their action was prearranged, and as the latter were hemmed in on every side by an ambuscade, the effects of the fire on the ranks of the officers was fearful. When the police had recovered from the first shock of the attack they gallantly charged upon their would be murderers, shooting at every step and mowing them down, as their fellow-officers had been by the bomb. The anarchists fled in dismay before the charge, but everywhere they turned the withering fire from the revolvers of the policemen followed them and thinned their ranks. The cowardly ones, finding their attack did not completely annihilate the officers and that a force large enough to cope with them was left, fled in all directions, seeking the darkness of alleys, hallways and side streets to escape the revengeful fire of the police. The collision between the police and the anarchists was brought about by the leaders of the latter, August Spies, Sam Fielding and A. R. Parsons, endeavoring to incite a large mass meeting to riot and bloodshed.

This morning there were at the county hospital twenty-seven wounded officers and three citizens. The wives and daughters of the sufferers were beginning to arrive and their grief added to the solemnity of the scene. It is thought several more of the officers will die before the day is out. In probing the wounds the physicians found large pieces of zinc. One small, thin piece of zinc made a hole in a man's leg as large as a grape shot.

KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Killed—Officers John Barrett, Joseph M. Deegan, Tom Reddin.

Reported dying—Mike Sheahan, Lawrence Murphy.

Wounded—Alexander Jameson, Pat Hartford, Lieut. James Stanton, Adam Barber, Thos. McHenry, Henry Weneke, E. McMahon, D. F. Schnell, T. Sullivan, James Lee, Joseph Norman, James Conway, George Miller, John Reid, Michael O'Brien, Arthur Conley, Hanson, Thomas Brophy, Dan Hogan, N. J. Redken, Peter Butler, John King, Luke Collier, Charles Fink, Henry Smith, Louis Johnson, Sam Heigo, Alex Halverson, Officer Butterly, Officer Tim Flahin, H. F. Krueger, Officer John K. McMahon, Officer John Doyle, Officer Horn, Ed Barrett, Frank Johnson, Michael Hohn, Thomas Nolan, Freeman Steele, Chas. W. Stiney, James H. Wilson, M. J. Mitchell, N. J. Shannon, James Conway, Tim Murphy, Henry Mensky, Pat Enury, Ben Snell, Frank Tirrell, Joseph T. Johnson and J. J. Barrett.

Among the rioters wounded were John Schmidt, Tim Burke, Michael Howard, John Hurd, Peter Ivey, Frank Moritz, a young man named Lunt, Thos. Brady and Mike Lynch.

Spies, Fielding and Parsons were arrested.

THE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE.

The entire police force is on duty today. The police are encouraged by the entire press list commending and praising them for their discretion, bravery and excellent discipline in the face of unusual assaults by the criminal element.

MAYOR HARRISON TAKES.

Mayor Harrison re-asserts his ability to preserve absolute peace in Chicago without outside aid.

8,000 MEN STRIKE AT PULLMAN.

Three thousand men at the car shops at Pullman went out this morning.

STRIKE AT THE DEERING WORKS.

Another great strike was inaugurated

this morning. Seventeen hundred men employed in the Deering Harvester works stopped work without notice or warning of any character or without having made any demands. The managers of the works have asked for police protection.

LAKE SHORE STRIKE.

There is also a strike of all freight handlers on the Lake Shore road and the switchmen on the same road have also decided not to handle any freight cars loaded by any persons other than strikers.

MOR VIOLENCE.

Mob violence again asserted itself in the northwestern part of the city this morning, at Eighteenth street and Center avenue. Three thousand persons gathered and threatened the drug store of Samuel Rosenfeldt because he had a telephone in the store. A wagon load of police took Rosenfeldt and his family to the station, leaving a guard in the vicinity.

Chicago, 8 p. m.—The anarchist, Parsons, has not been captured, as first reported. He is still hiding. Schwab was mistaken for him when the first arrests were made. Inspector Bonfield raided Seph's hall, where he found a lot of muskets, red flags and German books expounding socialist doctrines. Nearly $10,000 has already been subscribed on 'Change for families of wounded and dead officers.

3:10 p. m.—The police made another raid on the office of the Arbeiter Zeitung, and arrested a man in the office, who upon being searched, produced a large revolver and dirk knife. In the office was discovered several boxes of dynamite and a number of red flags and incendiary banners.

ANOTHER RIOT.

3:15 p. m.—A mob of from six to eight thousand persons reassembled near the corner of Eighteenth street and Center avenue at noon and raided the drug store before mentioned, carrying off everything possible in the store. They then raided a liquor store. The women and children joined in this raid. The police returned and succeeded in dispersing the mob.

SOCIALIST SCHWAB.

It is learned that Schwab, one of the men now under arrest, addressed the strikers last night, urging them to this course. The striking freight handlers adopted resolutions condemning anarchists and tendering their services, if need be to preserve public peace.

A BLOODY RIOT.

Inaugurated at Haymarket, Chicago, Last Night.

Chicago, May 5.—The Socialists held a meeting at the old Haymarket, on Randolph street, last night. Big factories and low saloons abound there, and the population consists of Germans and Poles. There were 1,500 men assembled. During the progress of an inflammatory speech by one of the agitators, a squad of officers marched by close to the speakers stand. Some one shouted, "kill the d—d." Almost as soon as the words had been uttered, three bombs were thrown from near the stand into the midst of the squad of officers. They exploded instantly and five policemen fell. Others were wounded, and several of the socialists did not escape.

The explosion of the bombs, which was terrific, was instantly followed by a fusillade of revolver shots. More coherent accounts are coming in and they point to a much more disastrous episode than at first reported. About 200 officers had been detailed to attend the meeting and had been in the vicinity, since the socialists had begun to assemble. At the time of the throwing of the bombs, the crowd had dwindled down to less than 1,000.

The utterances of the speakers were of the most inflammatory character and the crowd that remained grew riotous in their demands. The police concluded to put an end to the disturbance and advancing ordered the crowd to disperse. At first the socialists fell back slowly, one of the speakers urging them to stand firm. Suddenly the bombs were thrown. The police retreated and were well provided with weapons. The mob appeared crazed with a fanatical desire for blood, and holding its ground poured volley after volley into the midst of the officers. The latter fought gallantly and at last dispersed the mob and cleared the market place. Immediately after the first explosion, the officers who were left standing drew their revolvers and fired round after round into the mob. Large numbers of these fell, and as they dropped were immediately carried to the rear and into many dark alleyways by their friends.

Before the firing had ceased, the neighboring police stations were turned into temporary hospitals. At 11 o'clock twenty policemen lay on the floor of the Deaplaines street station, all disabled, and probably half that number seriously so. Others were reported to be still lying in the open square, either dead or badly wounded.

The following is the list of the killed and wounded among the police: Joseph Stanton, John A. Dyor, John McMahon, Miles Murphy, F. Steele, John Reed, Arthur Connelly, P. Sullivan, Charles Whitney, Thomas Reddin, George Mills, H. Kruger, J. H. Wilson, Joseph Norman, H. Halverson, F. Haida, Edward Barrett, John Hanson, J. Mitchell, A. Flavin, Charles Pink, W. J. Shannon.

Inspector Bonfield has just been seen at Deaplaines street station, and says concerning last night's trouble: "After Parsons had concluded his speech, Sam Fielding, another notorious socialist, mounted the wagon and began to speak. His address was of the most inflammatory description. He called on the men to arm themselves and to assert their rights. He finally became so violent that word was sent to the station, which was only a block distant, and Inspector Bonfield, at the head of one hundred and twenty-five men, marched to the place where the meeting was in progress. Inspector Bonfield called upon the crowd to disperse, and Fielding shouted out to them from the wagon, 'to arms.' The officer once more called on them to disperse, when, suddenly from behind the wagon, which was not fifteen feet from the front rank of the police, two bombs were thrown in between the second and third ranks of the men, with the effects as already stated."

On the table in the station house where the wounded policemen are, one poor fellow lies stretched on a table with terrible bullet wounds in his breast. A few feet distant a man with tattered clothes and a mortal wound in his side is lying insensible on a cot. Around the room in chairs, with their legs bandaged up and resting on supports of different kinds, are some fifteen or twenty of the officers, who were wounded by the bombs. Not a groan or complaint is heard from any of them. Another officer, who was found lying in the doorway where he had been carried, has just been brought in frightfully wounded. There are some twenty of the socialists in the basement. Nearly all of them are wounded and one of them, a young fellow of about twenty, is dead.

The following named socialists, all of whom are wounded, have been placed under arrest: "Joe Kucher, Emil Lotz, John Welland, Peter Day, John Frazer, August Inks, John Lauchmann, Explant and Chas. Schumacker."

The Ohio State Senators Fly from Columbus.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 5.—The democratic members of the senate were absent this morning with the exception of Vaneiliff, which makes eighteen members with all republicans and one less than a quorum. When the senate was called to order on motion of Pring, republican, a recess was taken to 11 a. m. At 11 a. m., only seventeen republican members were present. The speaker called up for special order the report of the committee on the senatorial contest in Hamilton county and gave the clerk a communication on the subject. It was read and ordered filed. A call of the senate followed and the sergeant at arms was sent after the absent members. Nearly all the democrats left the city and the sergeant is still searching for them.

At 2:30 p. m., the senate adjourned until to-morrow morning, none of the democratic members having been found.

RAILROADS.

The Lake Shore and Nickel Plate Elections.

CLEVELAND, O., May 5.—The annual meeting of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern stockholders was held here today. The following directors were elected for three years: John Newell, E. D. Worcester, John E. Barrill and E. W. Vanderhill. John DeKoven, of Chicago, was elected in place of W. H. Vanderbill, deceased. There being no quorum present, the officers will not be elected until the next meeting.

The stockholders of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis road also elected as directors, for three years, C. Vanderbill, W. K. Vanderhill, F. W. Vanderbill, H. McK. Twomey and C. M. DePew.

The Cleveland and Marietta railroad was sold to-day under foreclosure to Hugh L. Cole, New York, representing the bondholders, for $400,000.

New York, May 5.—J. W. Jewett resigned the presidency of the Chicago and Atlantic railway, on account of his removal from the city. James H. Benedict was elected to succeed Jewett and Thomas C. Muegrove was elected vice-president.

The Washington Post says: "The lady clerks in the Postoffice Department and some of the gentlemen clerks, too, make a great pot of little Miss Mollie Vilas, the daughter of the Postmaster General, who visits the department every Saturday, spends the day under the protecting wings of the lady clerks, and goes home with her father in the afternoon. She is a pretty little girl, with red cheeks and bright, sparkling eyes, and a tendency to say sharp things. Last Saturday about 12 o'clock, when she wanted some luncheon, she was going to her father, when one of the ladies remarked that it would be useless, as she had just seen him captured by a Senator. 'Senators are a bother, I must confess,' exclaimed Miss Mollie, petulantly; and it can hardly be questioned that she expressed the sentiments that her father frequently entertains."

BLOOD!

Spilled at Bay View To-day.

Five Rioters are Shot Down and a Number of People Mortally Wounded.

Best's Brewery is Attacked and the Socialists are Pursued Everywhere by the Militia.

BAY VIEW.

RIOT AND BLOODSHED THERE.

MILWAUKEE, May 5.—Reports from Bay View say the militia fired on the mob this morning. Two rioters are known to be killed. The mob is marching toward the Allis works, which started under military protection this morning. The light horse squadron is on the way to the works. A large gathering of socialists is reported at Milwaukee garden. An eye witness reports that two men were killed outright, two mortally wounded and a number slightly hurt. The collision occurred at Dear Creek bridge.

BEGINNING TO FIGHT.

The crowd of rioters at Bay View commenced to form at 8:30 and moved towards the mills. Six military companies were marched out of the grounds and stationed in front of the works and as the crowd approached, paying no attention to orders to halt, the dread word "fire" was given and a volley of bullets was poured into the crowd. The rioters heat a hasty retreat, when it was learned that and several wounded. One killed was a school boy, who had his school books under his arm when he fell.

KILLED AT BAY VIEW.

The rumor that two men were killed at the Best brewery was found to be untrue. Several shops were fired but no persons were injured. The list of killed and wounded at Bay View are: Frank Kunzkel, yard foreman of the rolling mill, instantly killed.

Minhal Ruhalski, laborer, died in a few minutes.

Marlin Jankoyer, fatally wounded. A boy fourteen years old, named Nowetohak, dangerously wounded in the abdomen.

Casimer Duda, condition serious. Albert Urtmann, dangerously wounded.

Two or three others, whose names are not reported, were wounded, but not seriously.

While trouble was going on at Bay View, a large crowd of socialists and strikers assembled at Milwaukee garden on the west side, and were preparing to carry out a program of

MOT AND DESTRUCTION.

A platoon of sixty policemen and three infantry companies were dispatched there and cleared the premises. The mob then reassembled and proceeded to Best's brewery and word is just received that a disturbance took place there, in which it became necessary to resort to firing and that

TWO PERSONS WERE KILLED.

The rioters, or those of the Polish nationality at least, returned to the city and proceeded to sack the residence of Captain Borchardt, of the Kosciusko guards, yesterday's firing, having been done by that company. The residence is a complete wreck. The Poles then assembled near the Polish church and it is rumored decided to arm themselves and make a raid on the militia at Bay View mills this afternoon.

DETROIT.

DETROIT, Mich., May 5.—The strikers in the western part of the city have by force of numbers overpowered several hundred more men so that they too are now out.

CINCINNATI.

CINCINNATI, May 5.—There are heavy accessions to strikers to-day, from the safe and lock manufacturers. About 1,200 employees have gone out, demanding eight hours work and full pay. They have quietly paraded the streets.

The striking furniture men have adopted emphatic resolutions against the murderous work of socialists in Chicago.

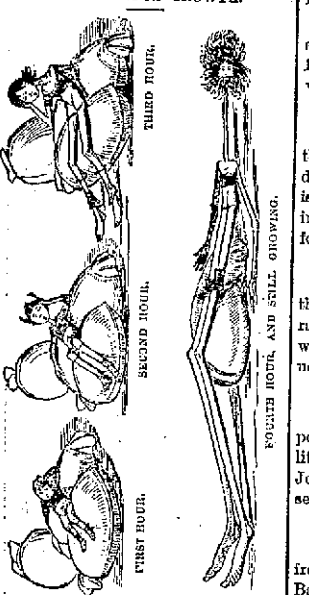

The police are protecting the men at work at the Little Miami freight house and have arrested three men who attempted to break through the lines. Work on the streets is stopped although the mayor has said he would afford protection to any who wished to work.

He Got a Change

One of those chronic sharpers who habitually infest omnibuses dropped into one the other day and proceeded to develop his little game. He was by no means unknown to the guard, who immediately collected his fare in the shape of a three-penny piece, and for a few moments nothing was said. When the fraud broke the silence with: "Am I going to have any change for that half-crown I gave you?" "You didn't give me half-crown," replied the guard, scowling darkly. "Yes, but I did, though, and if you don't pass over the two and threepence I'll report you." "But you only gave me a threepenny piece." "I say I gave you half-a-crown, and I want some change," and the man stood up, glaring defiantly. The passengers became interested and the guard came inside. "You're riding along all right enough now, ain't you?" inquired the latter. "Yes, I suppose I am." "Well," said the guard, suddenly getting behind the man and shooting him off the 'bus. "Now you ain't you see. Ain't that change enough for you?"—Melbourne Leader.

The Fort Wayne Ideal Bicycle club held their first meeting last evening and the following officers were elected: Captain, J. White; lieutenant, E. Olds; president, C. Morganthaler; secretary and treasurer, B. Nirdlinger. The boys will have their first run Friday.

This morning Judge O'Rourke issued an order restraining Margaret Gard from visiting the office of her husband, Dr. B. Gard, who applied for a divorce yesterday. Dr. and Mrs. Gard were married at Oxford, Ohio, in 1858, and lived together until 1879, when he alleges Mrs. Gard abandoned him and provisions to that time ceased to love him. He complained that she visited his office and annoyed himself and customers, hence the injunction this morning.

Joseph Proctor will appear in the great play, "Virginia," at the Temple opera house this evening. The Kansas City Star, edited by Col. Wm. R. Nelson, says: "Lovers of the legitimate drama, as portrayed by true artists, will have an opportunity of seeing Joseph Proctor and his company in Knowles' great tragedy, 'Virginia.' Mr. Proctor needs no words of introduction. He stands in the foremost rank of tragedians and his 'Virginia' is spoken of as a master piece. He is supported by his daughter, Miss Annie Proctor, as Virginia, and a specially selected company."

Mr. Will D. Gordon, the express agent, has a letter from Mr. A. Stone, of East Liverpool, Ohio, whose carrier pigeon he liberated here a short time ago. Mr. Stone says: "The bird got home all right. He was sent more for a test than for time, as he had only flown from Alliance before, a distance of forty-nine miles, reckoning by the road, so that a jump from Fort Wayne here is a pretty good test. You must make allowance in his time (four or five days) for not being trained. He goes to Chicago this week for a fly. A brother of his flew from Chicago a few weeks ago and had never been on that road before or even in that direction, having only flown from about Wheeling, W. Va."

Saunders will erect a two-story brick residence on lot 468 Hanna's addition at a cost of $6,000. John Bauman will build a one-story frame house on lot 19, Johnston's addition, at a cost of $500.

"Superintendent G. W. Stevens, of the Wabash, is evidently anxious to be regarded as eccentric. His latest move in that direction is the running of his private car in front of the engine instead of behind, as formerly. This may be all right on a clear track, but we would not envy him in case there should happen to be an obstruction on the track. Life is too sweet to risk unnecessarily," says the Lafayette Courier.

"We commenced selling Athlaphoras about a year ago. We have had the best success with it of any rheumatic medicine we ever handled," writes Dr. O. W. Halstead, of Muson, Michigan, and his experience is a common one.

Almost as Good as New.

If you have a suit of clothes that is soiled and unfit to wear, you can have it made almost as good as new by calling on Mr. G. Schroeder, 123 Calhoun street. He is not only a practical tailor, but a renovator and cleaner that has few equals anywhere. He has worked in Fort Wayne for thirty-five years, and is well known by all our people. He has conducted business at his present stand for over sixteen years. He will not injure the cloth, but make it bright and sparkle like new goods. You can have your old suit for a very small sum, made to look like a new wedding suit. Do not throw away your clothes, take them to him and have them done over, renovated and cleaned. You will never regret it after you see them finished. 4-3t

The County Debt.

The Daily People, an Independent newspaper published in this city, contains the following article on the county debt:

Ever since the present board of commissioners decided to fund the county debt in bonds running in the aggregate eleven years, the debt question has been almost the sole topic of conversation in political circles. While many of the people are loud in their condemnation of the extravagance of the last board of commissioners and the present county officers, there are others who manfully defend them against any imputations of dishonesty or extravagance, claiming that the nucleus, if not the principal of the heavy load that now weighs down the taxpayers of the county, was accumulated during the years extending from 1874 to 1882. Determined to get at the exact facts one of the People has, during the past few days, carefully examined the books in the auditor's and treasurer's offices, and without the least desire to shield anyone submits his report as follows:

On the 15th day of October, 1874, when Henry J. Rindisill turned over the books of the auditor's office to Mr. William T. Abbott, there were county orders amounting to $76,210.18 and a bonded debt of $80,000.

October 31, 1875, when Mr. Abbott retired from the office the books showed that there were county orders amounting to $39,863.56, while the cash account was overdrawn $1,538.81, making a total county debt of $41,402.37. In the meantime, however, the bonded indebtedness of $80,000 had been wiped out, leaving the net debt, October 31, 1875, at the time when Mr. Abbott retired, $41,402.37. This does not agree with the emphatic statements made by Mr. Abbott's friends that when he left the office there was not a single dollar owing to any man.

In November, 1882, when M. E. Argo finished his term and A. L. Griebel took charge, the books showed that there were county orders amounting to $177,826.15, with but $1,928.73 in cash in the hands of the treasurer, leaving a net indebtedness of $175,897.41, or an increase during the four years of Argo's administration of $134,495.04.

It will be seen from the above statement that when the term of the present county officers commenced, the debt saddled on the taxpayers had reached the sum of $175,897.41. Within the last three years, under a decision of Attorney General Hurd, Auditor Griebel has been compelled to pay back to the school fund $7,920.08, unlawfully withheld from the same during the years extending from 1856 to 1883. In the same time gravel road bonds secured by lien on the property adjoining the road have matured, and the assessments not having been paid in, the sum of $9,501.86 has been paid out of the county treasury to redeem the same. In addition to this the cost of the Richards murder trial, amounting to $5,000 in round numbers, have been paid out of the treasury, and stand charged against the treasurer. The total of these three sums, $22,421.89, added to the amount of orders outstanding when the present officers assumed control, $175,897.41 brings the county debt up to $200,000 in round numbers, the amount of bonds recently issued. There are at present county orders amounting to $1,063.49 with $15,460.99 in the treasury, leaving a net cash balance on hand in favor of the county of $14,397.50.

From the above statement it will be clearly seen that the heavy bonded debt of Allen county was incurred, not during the present regime. This will probably be unpleasant news to some people, but every figure in the above can be verified by references to the books of either the auditor or the treasurer. The most surprising fact demonstrated is that instead of the county debt increasing during the past four years, it has been slowly but steadily cut down, and with the increased revenues resulting from the re-appraisal of all real estate in the county at present being made it is only a question of a few years when the county will have been rescued from the slough of despond in which it has been wallowed for some time.

Prospects Getting Brighter.

A man rode past a cabin over in Virginia the other day, and seeing a woman in the front door he spoke to her.

"Gould mornin'," she answered.

"Bad weather we've been having," he continued.

"Pow'ful miserable."

"Are times pretty hard with you?"

"Well, they was till las' week, an' my boys didn't have clo's enough scarcely to kiver their selves, but the ole man died sudden Sunday night, an' sence then the boys has been lookin' so peart in his ole clo's that prospects is brightenin' mighty."

Washington Critic.

Modesty Personified.

Kosciusko Murphy is one of the most polite and deferential men in Texas. Not long since he was sitting at a hotel table with which there were several drummers with whom he was not acquainted. They were telling stories and laughing vociferously.

Kosciusko never smiled, but after an exceedingly funny story had been told, and the drummers were almost speechless with laughter, he leaned over and said timidly:

"Gentlemen, my name is Murphy, and if you have no objection I would like to chuckle a little myself over that last story."—Texas Siftings.

Stitch Querer Language.

"Stitch quere language as they use in this place I never heard before," said Mrs. Ragerich, who had just moved to Pearl-town from Bottles street, New York City.

"The lady next door to me says 'rub-bish' instead of 'rubbidge' and 'boil the kettle' instead of 'bile the kettle.' And that impertinent fellow in the drug store, when I told him something or other had got to beddy, says, with a grin: 'Yes, min, it should be done. It should be done,' indeed! Very fine talk, but 'it had got to be did' is good enough for me."—Harper's Bazar.

At Home and Abroad.

Hostess (to Bobby, who is dining out with his mother)—Will you have another piece of pie, Bobby?

Bobby—Yes'm.

Hostess (smilingly)—And so you are one of the fortunate little boys whose mamma let them have the second piece of pie.

Bobby—Yes'm; she does when we're out visitin', but at home I never get but one piece.—Harper's Bazar.

Maledictio Mrs. Dusenberry.

"What stuff is this about killing engines? They ain't alive. Mr. Dusenberry, what is meant by killing them?"

"Simply depriving them of fire and water, my dear."

"Oh! Then you could be killed very easily."

"How, my love?"

"By simply depriving you of whisky and water—especially whisky."—Philadelphia Call.

A More Appropriate Name.

Snifkins—I hear you are going to marry Miss Minerva.

Podgeson—I acknowledge the proud fact that the young lady is my fiancée.

Snifkins—As you are going to marry her mainly for her money I should suggest a better name.
